

QF Level	Bricklayer	Plasterer	Tiler	Construction Specialist Trade Supervisor (Plastering)
1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify characteristics and uses of various bricks and blocks (including red clay bricks, gypsum blocks, lime bricks, lightweight concrete blocks, etc.) QF Credit (3) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify mortar types and mixing ratios (including cement-sand mortar, ready-mixed mortar, ready-mixed fibre lime, bagged dry-mix plastering mortar, etc.) QF Credit (3) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify characteristics and uses of wall tiles/slabs and floor tiles/quarry tiles Identify the characteristics and application methods of tile adhesives and coloured tile grouts QF Credit (3) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify characteristics and applications of bricklaying, plastering, and tiling materials QF Credit (2)
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interpret construction drawings and documents; explain the relevant scope and details of construction Use and maintain bricklaying tools and related machinery (including plumb bobs, ink markers, brick trowels, pointing trowels, mortar mixers, etc.) Cut and process bricks and blocks according to the intended function of specified 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interpret construction drawings and documents; explain the relevant scope and details of construction Use and maintain plastering tools and related machinery (including shovels, straightedges, trowels, electric mixers, mortar mixers, automatic spraying machines, etc.) Mix various plastering mortars in correct proportions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interpret construction drawings and documents; explain the relevant scope and details of construction Use and maintain tiling tools and related machinery (including trowels, straightedges, electric mixers, power drills, tile cutting machines, etc.) Cut tiles according to required dimensions and construction specifications Mix various tiling mortars and adhesives 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interpret construction drawings, construction documents, and contract specification requirements for bricklaying, plastering and tiling trade works Interpret and comply with the execution of site safety plans Explain the relevant scope and details of construction QF Credit (3)

	brick walls and structures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Mix various bricklaying mortars in correct proportions (including cement-sand mortar and bagged dry-mix bricklaying mortar) ▪ Cut bricks and construct various brick walls/ components/ columns/ arches according to construction drawings, ensuring construction safety and finished quality meet acceptance standards specified in construction documents ▪ QF Credit (24) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Execute scratch coats and finish coats on ceilings, walls, and floors according to construction drawings (including interior scratch plastering, interior cement-fibre lime plastering, interior smooth-finish plastering, exterior rough-cast plastering, etc.), ensuring construction safety and finished quality meet acceptance standards specified in construction documents ▪ QF Credit (24) 	in correct proportions (including neat cement slurry, bagged dry-mix tiling mortar, tile adhesive, etc.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Cut tiles and execute tiling on ceilings, walls, and floors according to construction drawings (including exterior wall glass mosaic tiles, interior/exterior wall tiling/mosaics, interior/exterior wall glazed tiles, floor tiles/quarry tiles/homogeneous tiles/mosaics, etc.), ensuring construction safety and finished quality meet acceptance standards specified in construction documents ▪ QF Credit (24)
--	---	--	---	--

3				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Plan and arrange manpower, materials, and tools ▪ Supervise frontline workers' execution and site safety ▪ Communicate and coordinate with other site stakeholders ▪ Resolve difficulties and challenges encountered during construction processes ▪ Monitor project progress and quality to ensure compliance with acceptance standards and contract requirements; perform duties with integrity and strictly comply with relevant laws and regulations, including the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance ▪ QF Credit (10)
---	--	--	--	--